SHAREHOLDER COMMUNICATIONS POLICY

1. Purpose

The Board aims to ensure that shareholders are informed of all major developments.

Communication between the Board, the shareholders and the broader investment community is encouraged, subject to compliance with the continuous disclosure obligations contained in the ASX Listing Rules and the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) (Corporations Act), and the Company's Continuous Disclosure Policy.

Information is communicated to shareholders as set out in this Policy.

2. Reports to shareholders

- 2.1 The Annual Report is made available on the Company website as well as through ASX announcements. A copy is sent to shareholders who specifically request a copy. The Board ensures that the Annual Report includes relevant information about the operations of the Company during the year, changes in the state of affairs of the Company and details of future developments, in addition to the other disclosures required by the Corporations Act and the ASX Listing Rules.
- 2.2 The Half-Yearly Report contains summarised financial information and a review of the operations of the Company during the period. Half-yearly reviewed financial statements prepared in accordance with the requirements of Accounting Standards and the Corporations Act are lodged with the Australian Securities and Investments Commission and the ASX. The Half-Yearly Report is sent to any shareholder who requests them.
- 2.3 At the end of each quarter an update of activities and cash flow and any other significant items will be issued to the market. The Quarterly Activities Report and the Quarterly Cash Flow Report for Entities Subject to Listing Rule 4.7B (Appendix 4C) will be lodged with the ASX by the last business day in January, April, July and October each year. Each Quarterly Report will be placed on the Company website as soon as practicable after it has been released to the ASX.

3. Verifying periodic corporate reports

- 3.1 The Company is committed to providing securityholders and other external stakeholders with timely, consistent and transparent corporate reporting. The process which is followed to verify the integrity of the Company's periodic corporate reports is tailored based on the nature of the relevant report, its subject matter and where it will be published. However, the Company seeks to adhere to the following general principles with respect to the preparation and verification of its corporate reporting:

- (a) periodic corporate reports should be prepared by, or under the oversight of, the relevant subject matter expert for the area being reported on;
- (b) the relevant report should comply with any applicable legislation or regulations;
- (c) the relevant report should be reviewed (including any underlying data), with regard to ensuring it is not inaccurate, false, misleading or deceptive; and
- (d) where required by law or by the Company's policies, relevant reports authorised by release by the appropriate approver required under that law or policy.

4. ASX Announcement

4.1 Significant developments affecting the Company may be the subject of an ASX announcement under the Company's Continuous Disclosure Policy. Regular reports are also released through the ASX and the media.

4.2 All announcements are to be authorised by:

5.1 The Board encourages full participation of shareholders at the Annual General Meeting to ensure a high level of accountability and identification with the Company's strategy and goals. meeting. This information will be presented clearly and concisely so that it is easy to understand and is not ambiguous.

- 5.3 The external auditor of the Company will be asked to attend each Annual General Meeting of the Company and be available to answer shareholder questions about the conduct of the audit and the preparation of the Auditor's Report.
- 5.4 Important issues are presented to the shareholders as single resolutions. The shareholders are also responsible for voting on the appointment of Directors.
- 5.5 All substantive resolutions at the Annual General Meeting will be decided by a poll rather than a show of hands. This does not apply to procedural resolutions. Whether a poll is called on procedural resolutions is generally a matter for the Chair of the meeting.

6. Analyst, investor and media briefings

- 6.1 Analyst and media briefings may be conducted at various times throughout the year. Any materials distributed at such briefings will be posted on the Company website and lodged with the ASX prior to the time of the briefing.
- 6.2 Investor meetings, site visits and one-on-one briefings with the financial community and/or institutional investors or analysts may be held from time to time. At those meetings the Company will not disclose any information that a reasonable person might regard as being price sensitive unless such information has previously been released to the market through the ASX or is otherwise already in the public domain.
